Legislator Would Like Suggestions

Hon. W. F. Crockett Says Maui People Seem to Be Asleep—No Program Being Prepared or Bills Made Ready—Other Islands Have Active For Weeks

Editor The Maui News:

Sir: In your last issue you published an editorial entitled "Delay may be fatal" which impressed me as a very timely warning to the people of Maui who are anxious to have the Maui delegation get results in the coming session of the legislature.

The other islands have been busy for the past two months and have from time to time communicated with members of the Maui delegation for the purpose of getting their support on matters in which they are especially interested.

Strange to say not a word has come from any one on Maui, either directly or indirectly; but after the session has past into history then you will hear complaints that Maui never gets a fair proportion of the measures that are before the legislature and eventually pass. This is because the entire people of other counties see to it that they are heard and given their share of the advantages that are under consideration.

As to the committee of which you spoke, so far, nothing has ever been done.

The real cause of this lack of interest I am unable to understand, but I trust that before it is too late something will be done in the matter, thereby giving to the Maui delegation a definite idea as to what the people of Maui really want done for Maui.

I am,
Respectfully yours,
W. F. CROCKETT.

COLONIAL ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED.

Plans are on foot for an elaborate "colonial entertainment" to be given probably on February 19th, at the Paia Community House. The affair promises to be something extremely unique as well as timely.

A PLEASED VISITOR.

L. A. Severance, of St. Paul, who spent a week on Maui, made the crater trip last week and has left here one of this island's most enthusiastic boosters. He declared Haleakala to be the most marvelous thing he had ever seen.

"Valley of the Moon" Next Orpheum Feature

Pharos big offering at the Walluku Orpheum for next week is another Jack London story dramatized by the same company that produced the splendid film "Martin Eden" shown to Orpheum patrons a short time since. It is London's "Valley of the Moon", and is the story of a young working man striving to escape from the confinements of the city and to find a home close to nature. All of the author's strong realism is portrayed on the film, according to reports in the Honolulu press, where the picture was a great success. It will be shown in Walluku next Tuesday evening and should draw a crowded house.

NEW AUTOMOBILE SHOP.

F. M. Enders, who recently resigned as manager of the Maui Vulcanizing Company, will open an automobile repair shop of his own, the first of next week. The new garage is located on Vineyard street. Mr. Enders has secured the services of two expert automobile doctors from Honolulu.

DIPHTHERIA AT KULA AND PAIA.

A Japanese employee of the Maui Dry Goods & Grocery Company's Kula branch was placed in quarantine early in the week, on account of a bad case of diphtheria, as diagnosed by Dr. Burney. A Japanese child in the Upper Paia camp was also pronounced to be suffering from the same disease last week, and she together with some twenty-five "contacts" are now under quarantine.

Juniors Do Classy Work in Opening

Two Red Hot Games Kept Fans Hop-ping Right Up to Last Inning—The Kind of Ball That Will Make Good—Outlook Good For Tomorrow.

Some games last Sunday, yes—no? Well, drop around tomorrow and you're likely to see two more as good.

Last Sunday's games, which opened the 1915 series of the Maui Junior League, were exciting ones. The first game was between the Cubs and Haikus, the former defeating the latter to the tune of 6 to 3. The playing of both teams was dandy. Up to the 7th inning the score stood 2 to 2, and J. Silva of the Cubs then stood up at the plate, and with two men on bases trying to get a sight of the plate, knocked the ball on the nose far out of reach of the fielder's gloves, scoring the two men and himself. In the last half of the ninth, the Haikus used every effort to tie the score but they only succeeded in getting one man across the rubber.

Jno Keehu pitched for the winners, while Sterling and Paou handled the ball for the Haikus. All three did well.

The second game, between the Chinese and Waikapus, was much more exciting than the first, which is saying a whole lot. At the end of the game the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Chinese. The Waikapus scored their three runs in the first inning, and there was no more scoring until the end came. The Chinese scored two in their half of the first inning and two more in the fourth.

Each team tried several times to peep at the plate but the pitchers were on the lookout and nabbed all those who attempted to steal.

Chong pitched for the Chinese and was well supported by his teammates while K. Cockett of the Waikapus, lacked a little in this line.

Jno Garcia umpired to the satisfaction of fans and players.

Tomorrow's first game will start at one p. m., between the Chinese and Haikus, while the Cubs and Waikapus will rub in the second game at 3:00 p. m.

In all probability the batteries will be as follows: Haikus, Sterling and Aki Tom; Chinese, Chong and Equing. Cubs, J. Keehu and Pombo; Waikapus, De Meilo or Rodrigues and Scholtz.

Baseball Notes.

The Cubs are working hard, and as Tom says, they will lead all the others in the race. He will rely upon Johnny to force it through.

The Chinese might bring a surprise on the whole bunch, as Sam Alo says, and in all probabilities he will upset Tom's ideas and come out ahead of the others. He will depend upon Chong and Equing to do this.

Sterling is watching for the Cubs and Chinese, and as he says, he will not allow them to head him in the race. He is working for the Haikus to win.

Joe Rodrigues says that he is the Captain of the Waikapu team, and he is working hard to upset Sam's ideas. He will send his brother Manuel and De Meilo in the box tomorrow to carry out his ideas.

JARRETT SAYS MULES SHOULD DO WORK.

High Sheriff W. P. Jarrett stopped in Maui last Saturday on his way back from Hilo, to have a look at the work the convicts are doing at Haiku. Jarrett stated that it might be possible to supply Maui with some 40 or 50 men, provided he can be assured that they will have good treatment and given work suitable for them. The work at Haiku, he declared, should for the most part be done by teams and machinery, and not by hand.

BROTHER OF DR. GOODHUE DEAD.

News of the sudden death of J. H. Goodhue of Los Angeles has reached here. Mr. Goodhue was here last fall as the guest of his brothers, Drs. E. S. and W. J. Goodhue, returning home late in October. He leaves a large circle of friends in Hawaii.

New Manager For Olowalu

Manager Campsie Promoted to Paauhau and Alexander Valentine, Head Overseer at Hilo Sugar Arrives to Succeed Him.

James Campsie, who for the past year and a half, has been in charge of Olowalu plantation as manager, left this week for Hawaii to take a similar position with the Paauhau Sugar Plantation Company, another of the Brewer properties. Mr. Campsie will succeed Manager Alexander Smith who recently resigned. The new manager of Olowalu, who arrived early in the week, is Alexander Valentine, who comes from the Hilo Sugar Company, where he was head overseer for many years.

Mr. Campsie's departure, although in nature of a promotion, will be regretted by the many friends he made during his stay on west Maui. He came to Olowalu from the Hawaiian Agricultural Sugar Company, where he had been head overseer.

Regarding Mr. Valentine, the Hawaii Herald says: For many years Mr. Valentine was assistant manager of the Hilo Sugar Company and he, for many months at a stretch, has acted as manager of that concern, when Mr. John Scott has been away on a trip.

Mr. Valentine was for twenty-five years in the employ of the Hilo Sugar Company, and for the past fifteen years, was assistant manager. He took a large part in the bringing of the plantation up to its present grand condition. As a youth he did his work satisfactorily, and as a man he did even better. His well deserved promotion to the ranks of managers is pleasing to his many friends.

INTERESTING HUNTING TRIP.

Dr. McConkey, Ed. Deinert, W. A. Clark, Dave Fleming and one or two others, formed a hunting party which spent several days on Lanai this week. There is an interesting story or two in connection with this trip, which may bear telling later.

In the Movies

It is estimated that over one hundred persons were turned away from the Maui Theater on Thursday when the remarkable Neptune's Daughter production, in which the wonderful Annette Kellerman stars, was shown for the first time in Maui. The house was packed from top to bottom and the crowd was apparently pleased from the demonstration made, and from the comments to be heard after the long performance. Neptune's Daughter is a really remarkable picture in many ways.

At the Kahului Lyceum last night the picture again drew a large house, and all indications are that it will be a "repeater" when it is shown this evening for a second time at the Maui Theater.

Orpheum's New Machine.

The Walluku Orpheum featured two strong pictures this week in the Banker's Daughter, on Wednesday, and the Call of the North, on Tuesday, and both plays met with the usual generous patronage. Manager Pharos states that a brand new, Power's projection machine of the very latest model, will arrive for the Orpheum by this morning's Claudine, and will replace the present machine for the first time at this evening's performance.

FINED FOR MURDEROUS INTENT.

When Derode Temporal, of Maalaea, discovered that his neighbor Ed-zero, was so much interested in the affairs that he had cut an opening in the partition and was peeping into the apartment occupied by him and his wife, he was so disturbed in his mind that he immediately set out to carve his Filipino countryman to very fine mince meat. Armed with a big butcher knife, he would probably have succeeded had he not been overpowered by others in the camp and disarmed. Hailed into police court, he was not backward in admitting either his act or his intentions, and as a consequence he is now serving time in jail in lieu of $25 fine.

FINED FOR HAVING OPIUM.

Lee Ching Heang, a Walluku Chinese, caught red-handed by Deputy Sheriff Ferreira with a horn of opium in his possession, pleaded guilty in police court this week, and paid a fine of $50. Ferreira was watching an alleged opium joint on Market street, when Lee walked right into his arms, with the magic dope in his hand.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Favorite Recipes of Maui Housekeepers

No. 3.

Furnished by
MRS. GEO. W. WILBUR
Wailuku.

Eggless Cake.—One cupful sugar, 1-3 cupful shortening, 3 cupfuls flour, 1 cup sweet milk, 3 teaspoons baking powder. Beat thoroughly to make this light and flavor with any extract.

Chocolate Filling for the above.—One cupful sugar, 1 cup water, 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, and 3 level teaspoons cornstarch. Dissolve cornstarch in a little water taken from the cup and add to the rest of the water in which sugar and chocolate have been boiling for about ten minutes. Add a rounding teaspoon of butter and a little vanilla. Stir thoroughly and spread before it cools. A chocolate icing may be put on top of cake if so wished. Any filling may be used for the eggless cake.

Beef Balls.—Two pounds hamburger steak, 3 thick slices of bread soaked in milk or water, salt, pepper, and a little ground nutmeg to taste. Work the moist bread into the meat well, roll into balls and fry. Or it may be put in a bread pan and baked for meat loaf.

Vesuvius Eggs.—Toast slices of bread cut a little over half an inch thick. Butter them and trim to three and one-half inch squares. Beat high on each the stiffly beaten white of an egg, and carefully slip the unbroken yolk into a depression in the center. Place in a hot oven and cook very rapidly until the edges of the white are delicately browned and the yolk sufficiently set. Garnish with fresh parsley and serve immediately. Good for a luncheon dish.

Raised Biscuits.—½ cup yeast, 1 cup lukewarm milk, 2 tablespoons Crisco or butter, ½ cup sugar, flour enough to make firm dough. Raise well overnight, and take spoonful of dough at a time and roll in floured hand and place in pan. Let it rise to twice its original size and bake in moderate oven.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Kula Again Threatened With Draught

County Engineer Howell reports that the Kula pipe line has been dry for nearly three weeks. The small reservoir supply is about exhausted, and Kula people will soon be suffering from drought unless rain comes to relieve the situation.

The Paia supply has been shut off, and the Paia people are now getting ditch water, donated by the plantation. Another pool in the Waikapu gulch is at present being tapped, which will give some temporary relief.
